

"Colours of my world" - Art & Literary exhibition

12th - 20th August 2017

Signal Point GOOLWA

A 9 day arts and literary exhibition, offering an opportunity to inspire, share and celebrate with the autism community.

This year's theme is "Colours of my world"

An exhibition celebrating the diversity and unique talents and insights by artists from the autism spectrum community.

Special Guest: Tim & Judy Sharp are world renowned ASD artist and public speakers.
Tim will present his work and together they will talk about their personal journey to success.

Go to the website www.aspire2.org.au to see the current list of workshops on offer.
Register your interest in the workshops, submit an application or suggest a workshop now.
Limited places available.

Exhibit registration now open, will close 1/7/2017

More information:

Contact: Email preferred: jacinta@aspire2.org.au or Jacinta (m) 0419 170 266

Volunteers required for ASD projects in the Fleurieu working with the ASD community