

Creative Writing Holiday workshops for Kids on the spectrum

Do you know a teen or a child who loves to write?

Aspire to Inspire Together is offering two workshops in the July holidays for children and teens on the spectrum (siblings and friends are most welcome too).

We'll look at how to get started, writer's block, pulling ideas together and self-editing in a friendly, motivating environment.

All genres encouraged - sci fi, fantasy, realistic fiction, magical realism - wherever your imagination takes you.

Writers can come to one or both workshops. Cost $5 per session.

Call Jacinta on 0419 170 266 to book a place.
